

HARRY N. BRYANT, JR.

February 9, 2013

Harry N. Bryant, Jr., of Alabaster, Alabama, passed away February 9, 2013. Harry grew up in Hueytown, married his high school sweetheart, Nadean, in 1952, and spent the rest of his life moving around the country and making friends. Throughout his life he focused his livelihood around farming and the support of agri-business. Besides serving in the U.S. Marines, and a brief stint in the hotel business, Harry and Nadean owned and operated dairy farms, peach orchards, sold feed, and finally Harry retired from Millers Mutual, an insurance company supporting agri-business interests. Harry survived 40 years of countless critical illnesses, primarily because he wasn't through having fun yet. Throughout his last years, he continued to joke and pull pranks on his caregivers.

Mr. Bryant is survived by his wife Nadean; sister, Marian Wainscott (Carl); children, Rebecca Thebault (Tommy), John Bryant (Regina), Andrew Bryant (June); grandchildren, Jennifer Naish (Shane), Stephanie McKinney, Johnna Springer, (Ben), Erica and Alex Bryant, Camron and Kyra Thebault; great grandchildren, Abby, Lilly and Bella Naish, Bailey and Molly McKinney.

Harry will be greatly missed by numerous other relatives and friends.

The visitation will be Wednesday, from 5:00 PM until 7:00 PM at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral service will be February 14, 2013, at 11:00 AM at Alabama National Cemetery, Montevallo, AL.

The family wishes to express special thanks to Alacare Hospice (Clanton Office) and the Veterans Administration Hospital, Tuscaloosa organization and staff for their tremendous efforts in assistance and support.

Tribute Wall

TD

“ Sorry for your loss. I lived on Kenilworth Rd. and Ralph was a good friend and I remember Harry and Naeden. ”

Tommy Densmore - June 19, 2015 at 02:30 PM