“ My name is Faye Adkins and I am the mother in law of Tammy Adkins. My favorite memory of Helen is as follows: On various occasions I would find myself in line at various grocery stores and Helen would be one or two people ahead of me. She would always have a big smile on her face and would ALWAYS share her love of the Lord with the cashier and try to lead that person to Jesus Christ! I really admired her for having the courage to do that! She will be missed.

TA

Faye,
Yes, she certainly would. She wouldn't meet a stranger and she loved the Lord and shared her sweet spirit and kindness where ever she was. I appreciate you sharing. She loved you so much.
Love you,
Tammy Adkins
