“ Well Howard, Praise God You Made It!!! I know you are Resting in Peace now for sure! Our last talk we had when you were in the hospital you confirmed the peace you received when you got saved and baptized that no other can give but the Lord! I praise God for that conformation! Even though we aren't blood you have always been a part of our family all the years we have known you. You are a special person and I thank God for your presence in our family. Go rest high on that mountain. I will see you again one glorious day!!!

“ From Jan Abate and Greg Anderson.
We were blessed to have lived part of our lives with Howard as a brother.
His loving soul and spirt for others and animal's can be compared to no other.
In our hearts he will always be our brother.
His soul has now been passed on to our Lord and he no longer has to physically suffer.
But now there is a hole in our hearts we will love and miss you Howard forever.
