“ Jack was a gentle giant who adored his family. We were privileged to be his good friends, enjoying fun trips, outings and fellowship with him and his sweet Buddie. His funny stories kept us entertained, stories of his childhood, his college football days and his magical courtship with Buddie. He was an inspiration as he battled his many health problems, never failing to put others first. He always made sure to tell us we were in his daily prayers. There will be a huge empty place in our hearts but we know Jack is now with his Savior and Lord. Buddie and family, we are so very sorry for your loss. Love, Jim and Janice

So sorry that Jack has gone. I can only imagine what glory surrounds him now. My prayers are for you, Alice, and Kaci and Ritchie and the precious grands you both adore. I know the road you are having to walk and I am saddened you have to bare the loss. But God does send his comfort to surround you and that is my prayers for you all.
