“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the family during this time of your loss. Although I never met him in person, I feel as though I know him for he lived through his grand daughter, Stacy, who loved and cherished him dearly and spoke of him often. He was a very caring person and I know he will be missed. May God give you peace and comfort during this time. Connie, I know how hard it is to lose your parents. I know you will miss him terribly. He was a special person and you can always be proud of him. May God bless and give you comfort during this time.
