

JAMES SHELTON BAILEY

December 11, 1998 - December 11, 2014

James Shelton Bailey, 75, passed away after having lived at Plantation Manor Nursing Home for the past 7 years. He grew up in Lipscomb and Wenonah, attending Lipscomb Elementary and Jones Valley High School. James started a career in printing and engraving at Dewberry engraving in Birmingham, and worked in Memphis, Orlando, Austin, TX, Omaha, NE, and other cities during that engraving career. He then operated heavy equipment in Illinois before coming back to Birmingham. James rode Harley-Davidsons from age 16 until he was not able to ride and owned Flatheads, Panheads, Sportsters, and all of the old bikes. He is survived by his sisters Mrs. Judy Sorrell and Mrs. Marie Duckett; brother Tommy Kelley (Nancy); several nieces and nephews, great nieces and nephews, and great-great nieces and nephews. The visitation will be Monday, December 15, 2014 from 1:00 PM until 2:00 PM, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral service will be at 2:00 PM at the Funeral Home. Burial will follow at Valhalla Cemetery. He was loved by the staff at Plantation Manor Nursing Home and the family is grateful for the love and care he received there. Also, a special thank you to Dr. Jerry McLane for his years of caring for James in a special way, and to the ICU nurses and employees at UAB West for the excellent care as he spent his final hours there.

Tribute Wall

AG

“ Have fond memories of James growing up.

-----
Anne Gregory - December 15, 2014 at 11:16 PM

SF

“ Our condolences to your families. James was always kind to us and is remembered with fondness.

-----
Stacy Bailey Fulmer - January 01, 1753 at 10:40 AM

DB

Was my dad, hadn't seen him in 50 years, had a bad accident in Chicago, lost all his memory literally brain dead shocked he lived that long

-----
Denning Bailey - April 17, 2023 at 12:40 AM