“ My condolences go out to the Honeycutt family. Jim was such a down to earth person and I can truly say that I admired this man for who he was. Jim and his wife Lydia would set a few feet from me at the House of Prayer on Wednesday nights at FBPCG. When the service was over he would come up to me and with a warm smile ask how I was doing. You could see the Christ like character in him. Jim was a true Jesus follower. I will miss Jim setting in the pew a few feet from me but I will not forget. When Jim went to be with the Lord, I can say the words I think Jesus said to him. Well done good and faithful servant come and share your masters happiness (Matt 25:21). In closing I can surely say we need more men like James Honeycutt. Jerry Henderson FBPCG
