“ I am saddened to learn of Jim's passing! I had the pleasure of working with Jim in the early 1990's. Jim was kind enough to take me under his wing and help me develop my leadership skills. One of the many pieces of advice he shared with me was "Here in the South you have to take time to have a casual conversation by talking about football, golf, family, and what activities folks are interested in before jumping into business topics." He was a wise and caring man who became my friend. He was a legal genius and I learned early to seek his opinions on cases. RIP Jim, all who knew you will miss you.

Sending prayers and condolences to his family.
