

JEAN COKER HOLSOMBECK

May 27, 2015

Jean Coker Holsombeck, 84, of Oak Grove, passed away on Wednesday morning May 27, 2015, from a long battle with cancer, with her family by her bedside. Because of her love for animals, she took in many stray cats and dogs providing care, spaying, neutering and finding them forever homes. Nothing made her happier than working in her yard, planting flowers, and helping others. Jean lived in Pinson and Hoover for many years and retired in Oak Grove. She was a member of Ezra Baptist Church. She is preceded in death by her parents Pauline Johnson Coker and Robert Coker of Oak Grove, brother, Glenn Coker of Oak Grove and Bobby Coker of Wilsonville. She is survived by her three children, Mike Holsombeck of Birmingham, Don Holsombeck (Kathy) Birmingham and Leslie Holsombeck of Hoover; grandsons Ethan and Camden Holsombeck, Kyle and Chase Griffin; nephews Stephen Coker of Atlanta Georgia, and nephew Kenny Coker (Cindy), and their two children Ella and Corbin; a sister-in-law Betty Coker; other nieces and nephews; and many special friends. The family would also like to acknowledge very special friends of the family, Sharon Cooner, Marla Wallace (James) and the entire Wallace family, Ezra Baptist Church family, the Bruno's Cancer Center at St. Vincents Hospital, Dr. Susan Salter in Radiology and her staff for their care and compassion; A special thanks to the entire staff at Vitas Home Hospice, they were wonderful on her final journey and we would like to send a special thanks to her nurse Lauren Rice. The family will receive friends at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home on Friday, May 29, 2015, from 5:00 until 7:00 PM. The funeral service will be Saturday May 30, 2015 at the Funeral Home at 11:00 AM. Burial will follow at Oak Grove First Baptist Church Cemetery. In lieu of flowers please make contributions to Ezra Baptist Church, 1512 Toadvine Road, Bessemer, AL 35023 in her memory.
