Jeremy was one of the best people You could have ever known, he was the person to always go out of his way to make every one happy. He was never one to hate, he had a gigantic heart. He sure did love his animals, dogs and cats were his favorite. He was someone you could always count on, you could talk to him and tell him about anything and he would never judge. He was a very strong man. He was the best father a girl could ever ask for, he always helped and stood by me no matter what, and he supported me in everything I did. He prepared me for the world, he taught me everything I know about the real world, he taught me not everyone is who you think they are, he taught me to always keep my head up no matter what anyone says because no body has the right to judge and it is simply their opinion. My father was an amazing person, he gave me strength, my dad was not just a father he was my best-friend, my pride and joy, my everything. I loved my dad more than anything and I always will.
