

JEREMY "POOKIE" SCOTT BECKMAN

March 15, 2014

Jeremy "Pookie" Scott Beckman, 39, of Duncanville AL, passed away March 15, 2014. He was an independent contractor for HB Logistics and Comcar Industries. He was a loving husband, father, and son, and was willing to help anyone at any time. He is survived by his wife Jodi Beckman; children Brittany Beckman, Justin McCarley, Jacob McCarley, and Chloe Beckman; parents Alan and Diane Beckman; father-in-law Bill Bowling (Lee Anne); mother-in-law Carolyn Browning (Mike); brother Mattox Beckman (Hye Shin); brother-in-law Jeff Smith (Melanie); grandmother Naomi Mosley; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, and uncles. The visitation will be from 5:00 PM until 6:30 PM, Wednesday, March 19, 2014, at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home. The funeral service will follow at 6:30 PM, with Rabbi Eric Walker officiating. The family requests, in lieu of flowers, that donations be sent to Autism Awareness at www.autism-society.org.

“ Well sweetie, it will soon be a year that you went away and to say that the pain is still raw and overwhelming is an understatement. You made such an impact on this crazy family that you chose and your sweet unselfish way is so greatly missed! There isn't a single day that passed that I don't think of you. You were one of a kind and no one could ever fill your shoes! Fly high my sweet Jeremy and know that my fervent prayer is to someday see you again. I love you and miss you bunches!! Momma Carolyn
