“ To the family Lucille, Jerry and Niki, I am so saddened by Jerri Lynn's passing. I just saw this or I would have been there. Although she had been ill off and on, and sometimes troubled by the demons of her past, she was still a beautiful, sweet and kindhearted woman. No parent should ever have to bury a child, even if that child is grown. Please know you all are in my thoughts and prayers. My heart goes out to those she left behind. I will always remember her, and you all. Love and hugs from Mary Waits on June Avenue.
