“ *He always , always had a smile. Tried to help in any way he could.
He was a good friend at the bank. He was one of those people you could hug when you saw him. So sorry for his passing. Always “ *What great memories Jerry created for us! While he would agree "there is a time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance," he made us happy to be around him. A good man.

His empathy, compassion for others was evident, and keeping in touch with him was important to so many people. He was not just an acquaintance. He was a friend. If Heaven has sugar-coated orange slice candy, I hope he enjoys his fill.*

it brought sadness to all of us to find out that Jerry passed "the Boys"as my parents Earnest and Vera Huddleston Fuller would referred to them.They brought great joy to all of us . Time has put distances between us. But I have fond memories of them that will last a life time., in my 9th decade of life . They are both resting with their Father William Wallace and their Mother May and their Grand parents. Family this is a belated sympathy, Judy and family we send you prayers of comfort still at this late date. From Their Aunt Norma Fuller Green and family
