

JIMMIE A. BEDFORD HOBSON

December 9, 2013

Jimmie A. Bedford Hobson passed away December 9, 2013, at the age of 75, while a resident at the Golden Living Nursing Home in Bessemer. Born in Hueytown, she mostly lived in Bessemer. Jimmie, better known as Mickey is preceded in death by her faithful and loving husband, Burgess F. Hobson, Jr., youngest son David Brian Hobson; father, Braxton B. Bedford, and sister Johnnie (Tenni) Bedford Perry. She is survived by son, William Braxton Hobson (Regina), Darryl Wayne Hobson (Christine); grandchildren, David Braxton Hobson and girlfriend Crystal Whatley; Rebekah Ann Hobson Dupuis (Derek), Bryan Franklin Hobson and girlfriend Brandi; sister, Shirley Ann Bedford Moore (Donald), and several nieces and nephews. She worked both as a volunteer and as an employee of The Bessemer Salvation Army, and for many years at the First Alliance Church, on 6th Avenue in Bessemer. Her fondest memories were the activities and work of the First Alliance Church. "she went beyond the call of duty" to perform her task at the church. Because as she said, "I am not doing this for the church people; " I am doing this for the Lord." The things bringing her the greatest joy was church work, and family - mostly her grandchildren. Visitation will be held Thursday, December 12, 2013 from 9:00 until 10:00 AM at Peoples Chapel Funeral Home with the funeral service following at 10:00 AM. Burial will follow at Highland Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, family request contributions be made to The Alzheimer's Association or Hueytown Baptist Church Youth Ministry.
