“ I extend my deepest condolences to Mrs. Ashcraft, (Laura), Jacob, family, & close friends. His memory will always stay with me because in the Fall of 1973, he took a ragtag team of only 18 boys and nearly pulled off the impossible. It has been over 40 yrs. & i am sure that everyone on the team would agree with me, that it was the most fun I ever had. Thank you Coach and Godspeed.

“ So sorry to hear about "Coach" Ashcraft. He was everyone's favorite, always. From a coach to a teacher, to a friend to my Dad and Mom and the rest of us. What a great man.

He led our team to many victories and even loaded us all up when the officials took it to the extreme at 1 game.

Just a great man.

Thanks coach for great memories, I've told my kids of a drivers ed. Teacher that would light cigars and just let us drive down to the Warrior river. They couldn't believe it. What great times !! You will be missed.
