“ Max was our pastor at Woodland Hills Baptist Church. Not only was he a solid friend and pastor, stimulating in the pulpit and wise in all of his dealings with parishioners and public, but he and his wife never lost their appetite for learning and encouraging. When my husband died I could understand his loss and feelings when his wife passed. We all know he is in a better place and rejoicing at his new life. The rest of us will miss him.

“ I don't know that you could ask for a better Father in law than Max. It was an honor to serve this Man of God on a daily basis during his last couple of years here on earth.
