Seven grandchildren, Nia Joan Speight, Andre Speight, Jaddin Glenn, Camron Dagnan, Stryker Glenn, Sydney Francis, and one great-granddaughter, Haven Speight McCrimmon, many nieces, nephews, and cousins that all adored her.

She was a retired auditor for a Government Contractor in Washington, DC. She grew up in Pensacola/Pace Florida and lived many years in San Diego, CA as a banker and property owner. She graduated from Milton High School in 1960. She Loved her family and was always the fun Mom, Aunt and the life of the party! She loved all sports, especially the Milton Panthers, Pace High Patriots and everything BAMA and she loved nothing more than to watch her children and grandchildren playing while she yelled at the Refs! Her favorite pro team was the Atlanta Braves! She fought the good fight, she finished the race, she kept the faith and is resting in the arms of Jesus and all of her loved ones preceding her. We were so blessed to have had this bright light in our
