“ My loving and amazing Daddy, I miss you like this was yesterday, still. You were truly a wonderful person, amazing father, loving husband and son. You were thoughtful, and would help anyone you could, as long as they were trying to help themselves. You are and always have been my hero. I miss and love you so much. I have no doubt you're watching over us. So until we see one another again... I love you and miss you.

I was so sad to hear of my sweet cousin Joe's passing. But rejoice that Joe is going to a painless and happy place. The living grieve and my prayers are for God to give Patsy and the family strength through their grief. Joe's smile will be missed by so many. I will never forget that when my Daddy died, we were at the graveside and I didn't know that Joe was in his car holding a pie for me. He waited for about an hour to make sure that I got that pie. That is an example of the love and patience that he had/has. Love to him and to his soul. Forever. Sandi and Ron Archer.
