November 16, 2010

NORTHCUTT, JOY WILSON Age 70, of Hueytown, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, November 16, 2010. She was preceded in death by her father, Byron Wilson. Mrs. Northcutt is survived by her husband of 50 years, Clarence Northcutt; her mother, Mona Wilson; her daughters, Katsy Sellers (David) and Becki Bowman (Joel); her sister, Gay Thomas (Bob); and her grandchildren, Jay (Danielle), Daniel, Katelyn, Emily and Jacob. Joy received her B.S. degree from the University of Alabama, where she was a member of the Million Dollar Band; and her M.A. degree from UAB. She was a special education teacher in Jefferson County for several years and taught private piano lessons, as well as playing clarinet with the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra. Joy was a lifelong Christian, who had a calling to minister to those who had spiritual needs particularly in area nursing homes, through women's groups, and in local churches. In recent years she became an ordained minister through New Life Worship Center where she was a member. Joy's name was indicative of the way she lived her life. Her loved ones will cherish her memory through the quilts she made, the lessons she taught, and the unconditional love she gave to all of us. Visitation will be at Peoples Chapel on Brooklane Drive in Hueytown on Thursday, November 18, from 5 to 7 pm. Funeral services will be at Peoples Chapel on Friday, November 19 at 10 a.m., with burial to follow at Earnest Methodist Church Cemetery.
