“ We grieve at the loss of this precious relative and fine lady. She was a true example of Christian living, and was devoted to her husband Jimmy, children and loving family. It just made you feel good to be around her and her sweet spirit will be sorely missed.
- family of her brother Milton Garrett, his wife Shirley, their children Lauren, Julie, Steven and their families

My grandma Jeanne shared stories of her and Kitty when they were young. Here are a couple that I'm fond of.

Being twins Kitty and Jeanne would go out on dates when they were teenagers. Kitty and Jeanne would go out on a double date and switch places and/or dates in the middle of dinner! They would dress alike. Grandma said she and Kitty would really have fun and laugh about it after.

Another story my grandma Jeanne would tell about her and Aunt Kitty was their senior year in high school. The editor of the year book didn't realize they were twins. So when the yearbook was published it only had Kitty's picture displayed. They thought the other one of Jeanne was a duplicate.

When visiting Alabama for Aunt Betty's funeral, I rode in the car with grandma Jeanne and Aunt Kitty. They were so excited to sit and catch up that they talked non stop on the way to the funeral. I don't know if they could even hear what the other was saying and talking over each other but they were finishing each other's sentences. It puts a smile on my face remembering that they could be apart for so long but still have that great connection.

Thank you Aunt Kitty for these sweet memories. Rest in Heaven.

God how I miss you already you were the best grandma ever! You were amazing to me Daniel and Brandon and you kept us every summer from the time we we're born all the way until we were out of school and then you had Alexis and Ashlyn almost every weekend and not one time have I ever seen you get mad cuss or anything negative you were a saint and how I always wanted to be like you. I love you so much and miss everything about you. Heaven will be whole with you there. Love your granddaughter Crissy
