“ She was my favorite person, best friend, my biggest fan, and one of very few consistent people in my life, no matter what was happening with me good or bad.

Im so very thankful to have gotten to be her granddaughter but not only that she was like a mother to me most of the time. She would introduce me like that sometimes "my daughter i never had Britty Brook,".

I can't imagine going the rest of life without being able to call you, yell and argue with you, color your hair and let u do mine one time and end up dying the main parts of the kitchen 🤔, and the worst hug you one more time when you are being a "sensitive sally".

Please give papa a hug for me and i know i will see you again my nana.

Hugs and kisses!
