“ Ken was a wonderful guy and will be truly missed. He was a smart business man and always treated his customers fairly. I remember many nights playing softball with and against him. We hunted a few times together. I have fond memories of Ken and all his brothers. Rest in peace and my condolences to Carol and the rest of the Helms family.

He was a wonderful person, husband and business man. He worked hard everyday and loved it.
I wish I could have written his obituary because it's wrong.
Our daughters middle name is DeeAnn and I was left out of his survivors. We were together over 52 years and I Cherish every day!!
I'll miss him until he comes back to get me!! I love you Kenneth Helms with all my heart!! ❤️
