“ Words cannot describe the impact that Kevin made on anyone and everyone he crossed paths with. His fun and outgoing personality was contagious to all those around him. If Kevin was around he wasn't gonna put up with anyone not having a good time and he made sure everyone had a smile on their face. I am honored to have been able to share many memories with an amazing person. Kevin was there for me through some really hard times and he always had my back. I will cherish memories of the river, the hunting club, late night riding, and parties anywhere and everywhere. You will never be forgotten kuznkeg:) I will always love you and miss you but we shall meet again one day. Prayers to all his other friends and especially his family during this difficult time.
