

KEVIN BARRY McENTEGART

August 3, 1931 - September 20, 2012

Kevin Barry McEntegart, of Hueytown died September 20, 2012 at home at the age of 81. He was born August 3, 1931 in Bronx, NY. He was very proud of his Irish heritage, as he was a first generation Irish American. In 2002 he went “home” to Ireland to meet many of his family members for the first time. Kevin was a graduate of Colorado State and Pace Universities and made his career in sales. He served his country as a Marine during the Korean War. Kevin loved cooking and gardening as well as telling a good joke. Kevin appreciated good music although he couldn’t sing a note. He was also a staunch Buffalo Bills fan. He was preceded in death by his parents, James and Margaret McEntegart, sisters: Mary McEntegart and Rose Farrelly. He is survived by his wife of 37 years, Barbara; son, Sean; daughter, Deborah Warren of Helena; “Favorite” granddaughter, Sydney Warren; and “very special” godchild, Scarlett Riley; sisters, Kathleen of Spring, TX, and Ann of Memphis, TN; brother, Jimmy (Eileen) of Raleigh, NC; godmother, Kathleen Godfrey of NYC; and many nieces and nephews. A memorial celebration of his life will be held at The Episcopal Church of the Holy Apostles, Hoover, AL on Saturday, September 29, 2012 at 10:30 AM. Internment will be at the convenience of the family. A special thank you to the Holy Apostles Men’s Group, and for the thoughts and prayers of his family and friends. In lieu of flowers, donations may be directed to Three Hots and a Cot, the Building Fund of Holy Apostles Church or a charity of your choice.
