“ Kim was one of my first friends, we met when we were 8 and spent the summers as kids playing down at the creek shooting bb guns and camping out in each others back yards, later we played sports together. He was a real good guy, he liked everyone and had the best smile. He will be missed by his friends and family. Prayers to Mike and Kelly, Rest in Peace my old friend.

“ The last words I spoke to him were I love you. He was heading to Vegas with a friend and said we would get together when he got back. We never did. I know he's no longer hurting and I will see him again. I'm so sorry for the pain everyone feels by his absence. ??

“ Words cannot describe how heart broken we are over the death of K.C. K.C. played poker at our office most every Sunday afternoon for the past couple of years. We grew to love him dearly. Our two dogs, Milo and Rudy did as well. That always went to him because they knew he loved them and would give them lots of attention. K.C. will never be forgotten! Rest in peace sweet friend until we see you again! May God comfort you as only He can and give you peace that surpasses all understanding.
