“ When Larry and I were growing up, we were best friends. His mom and dad and my mom and dad played cards every other week. We played hide and go seek at my house, and we played on the slate hills near his house with B Boy and Star. We had great times together. He was a little older than I was so he helped me grow up a little. He showed me my first playboy, told me my first dirty joke, and tried to explain females to me. As far as the ladies go, we never really understood them, but what man does? I am sure you are going to heaven, but even if you went to the other place, that's where I would want to be when I die, because with you there, it would be a fun place to be! Barry Marshall
