“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to your family with these comforting words: In addition to prayer and up-building association, God's written Word is a source of comfort to those who mourn. Bible accounts reveal that Jesus has the deep desire and the ability to remove the pain of bereaved parents by bringing the dead back to life. (Luke chapter 7; Mark 5:22-24, 35-43) Such detailed Bible accounts about the resurrection of children show grieving parents today what they can look forward to. Jesus said: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) God purposes that his Son will give life to those who have died. This is the hope for, Leslie, as well. I am very sorry for the loss of your beloved one. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~ crochetmerylsway@gmail.com

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to the entire family. Leslie was such a sweet, giving, and forgiving person. The world is a better place for her having been here. She will be greatly missed by so many.

If there is ever anything I can do, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Although I cannot make it to the memorial or service; I will be there with you in my heart and spirit.

You are in my prayers and thoughts.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Vines-Hill

“ Dear Florence, Steve and Stephanie, This is such a hard time. Leslie was so dear to me. I will miss her laughter and beautiful face. I am unable to put into words how I feel. I know that God will be kind and will see you through. I hope the love of friends will be a comfort to you. Florence, you are my dearest friend and I grieve so for you. I wish I could just hug you and make things better. Go with peace. I love all of you.

“ Stephanie and family, We know, all too well, your pain and loss. My family will be remembering you and yours during this difficult time and in the days to come. Find comfort and peace in God and knowing that she is in a much more Heavenly place. Maybe she is fishing with Bubba, Steph! Loving you all...Lane
