“ I am a friend of Linda’s daughter, Kim. I have heard so many sweet and enduring stories of this wonderful lady. I truly wanted to meet Linda after covid settled down but I regret I have missed my opportunity. This is the sad choices we make. Never, put off what you could do this day. We miss such great people in our paths that we could have had as amazing friends! There is no doubt we would have laughed and shared each other’s lives. Linda, left a great legacy of family, her light still shines and will always be in our hearts....
