“ Lynn and I were great friends growing up across the street from one another. I have very happy memories of our childhood and she was also very influential in my spiritual life! Patricia Lambert

“ I have so many memories of growing up with Lynn. I spent so much time with Lynn and her family. I went to Wind Creek Park to camp out (my only camping out ever) and we had so much fun and only Lynn would remember - the twins. I spent many nights spending the night there and Lynn and I would watch old movies. She was a dear, dear friend and I'm so happy that I'll see her again someday.

“ My sweet cousin always liked to tease me that she had my name, Cecilia, before me, in honor of my dad, Cecil Tate, her dad's brother. I never minded! When we could all visit she and I would make mud pies. I had to make mud cakes because we didn't need too many pies! I'll see her in heaven one day and know that Jesus will let two old ladies make mud pies and cakes 💕 she was the sweetest cousin and I love her so much. She will be missed greatly and she has earned her wings and be with her husband Alan and her parents and mine and all the others who have gone ahead. Rest in peace sweet lady.
