

MARJORIE McLELLAN HARBUCK

June 20, 2018

Marjorie McLellan Harbuck, age 86, of Hueytown, AL., passed away Wednesday, June 20, 2018. She was a native of Fairfield, Alabama for 49 years. She was the daughter of John and Jessie McLellan who preceded her in death. She was also the sister of the late Hazel McLellan Cason. She was a graduate of Fairfield High School. She also graduated from the Birmingham Baptist School of Nursing. Following her graduation, she traveled to Hawaii where she married her late husband Hugh Milton Dugger. During his military career she worked as a Registered Nurse at many of his posts. Upon his retirement they returned to the Birmingham area where she started a long career with Baptist Medical Center Princeton. She retired as the operating room director in 1994. She was an active member of Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church where she served as Sunday School teacher and worked in the pantry ministry. She married the late Ralph Harbuck of Midfield in 2004. They danced and traveled until his death in 2010. She is survived by her son John Dugger (Amy), and daughter Carolyn Dugger (Keyvan); granddaughters Emily Hersel (Matt), Katie Wendorf (Marc), and Ingram Ann Dugger; great granddaughter Mary Fischer Wendorf. Family would like to thank Jackie McMurry, Linda Bauder, Self Healthcare, and Comfort Care Hospice. The graveside service will be at 10:30 AM, Saturday, June 23, 2018, at Pleasant Ridge Baptist Cemetery. Family requests that memorial be made to Pleasant Ridge Baptist Church.

Tribute Wall

ME

“ Mrs. Marge was more than a neighbor to us, she was family. She loved us and served us so well, in a very selfless way. She had the kindest, most gentle spirit and always a smile on her face. She will be missed greatly. Mindy Barnhill Ellis

Mindy Ellis - June 23, 2018 at 09:45 AM

TR

“ Nurse Harbuck was my new found friend she would go with me from hall to hall to pass out meds with blue gloves on.

Tomiko Rhodes - June 22, 2018 at 06:02 PM