“ Eloise is like losing another family member. She was always kind and loving to me always taking the time to listen to my troubles and always have me sound advice. I knew when we talked it was between us and she would not gossip. Thankful for the many talks I had with her and the wisdom she shared. She never told me what I wanted to hear but what I needed to hear. Loving her was an honor and being apart of the family is a blessing. She will be missed by all who loved her. I know she had found my sweet mother by now and they're catching up. Now they have Dale and Debra in their arms loving them and telling us to be ready. Jesus is coming! !! Much love to this beautiful family.
