“ Aunt Marylane was a classy lady. She always welcomed us in her home no matter whatever situation. I loved spending my childhood around her and my cousins. She will forever be in our hearts and will be missed.

“ She was the most godly woman and the best mother-in-law a person could ask for. She always treated me like a daughter. She was a great grandmomma and memi. She will truly be missed. I know she is celebrating in heaven with our heavenly father. We love you and miss you so much already. See you soon.
