“ As one of the younger cousins on the Templin side, I always looked up to Max, Terry, Glenda, and Larry. I remember Sunday dinners at our Great grandparents home and good times had by all. I like to think that some day soon in heaven Aunt Chris, Uncle Harold and my mom will sit around a table together and eat hot chocolate chip cookies just out of the oven and laugh about antics from early life! We were blessed to call him cousin. I know he will be sorely missed here on earth, but we will meet again! Love and prayers.
