“ I am so sorry for your loss. I'm sure she was a great mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend and you all loved her very much. I was glad to hear that she did get to come home. I believe that being surrounded by family and memories in a place that you want to be can bring great comfort. Keeping you in my prayers. Remember "absent from the body, present with the Lord". It is hard to even begin to imagine but He loves her more than is humanly possible.
