“ Gene and Ginger, I am so sorry I couldn't come to the funeral and to be with you both and the rest of the family. We were out of town for the holiday week end and I didn't find out in time. Kay was so kind to leave two messages and Debra emailed me, but didn't get them in time to come. I loved Boots and cherish the times I spent with her in the last years. We got to know each other really for the first time. I have a picture of her and my dad, that she gave me when he died, of the two of them dancing in the dirt road near the airport in Tuscaloosa, with the radio turned up loud. She must have been about 15 or 16 years old. I have it on my dresser and look at it every day. It makes me smile at the happiness and innocence they both had. Love you, Anna Mary
