“ Joan was a wonderful person and a loved cousin. She was always kind, sweet and full of love and life. She was quick to smile and laugh and I never knew her to complain at life's misfortunes. For the past several years our contact was by computer and she often talked with Faye, my wife, and Faye came to love Joan through their conversations. We will all miss Joan. We all loved Joan. We get through these hard times because of our faith in God and the sure and certain knowledge that we will see Joan again in a better time and place. God bless you, Joan.
