December 9, 2024

Her love of family gatherings was unmatched, and she will be remembered for the warmth and love she brought to every event, especially through the delicious meals she prepared, often eagerly anticipated by her loved ones.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Lillian Wilder and Daniel Glover, and her oldest brother, Danny Glover. Patti is survived by Vincent, her siblings: Vickey (Mac) Bailey, Wendi (Paul) Hopper, Gay (Tim) Vanderburg, Jennifer Glover, and David (Lili) Glover. She was a proud mother to her two children, Paige (Michael) Watkins and Matthew (Mollie Beth) Amick, and a cherished grandmother to her four grandchildren: Dylan (Taylor) Watkins (and great-granddaughter Ellie Kate), Daniel Watkins, and Evelyn Amick, and her table was always crowded with extended family of nieces, nephews, and friends who loved her dearly.

Patti's funeral service will be held on Saturday, December 14, 2024, visitation from 11:00-12:00 and the service beginning at 12:00 at People's Chapel, 195 Brooklane Drive in Hueytown Alabama. “ Patti was so unique, because of her personality, her sense of humor, her heart, and her faith. She could be both flamboyant and humble. She could laugh as loud as anyone, yet she could be as caring as anyone you know. She knew exactly when to be strong and she knew exactly when to be gentle and sweet. Her love of God, her love of her country, her love of family and friends was a great example to all of us who knew and loved her! As for me, I will never forget how much fun she was to be around, and the kindness that she always showed me. This world would be like heaven on earth if everyone was like Patti.
