“ I worked for Paul’s brother Dennis Dabbs delivering flowers while going to high school. When I met Paul, he was a fun and positive person. He was always happy to see you. Happy to hear what you had to say and visit with you a minute. I could go on and on, but a multitude of people call Paul Dabbs, a friend. Paul loved his student. It could be shown by all of people that visited him in his last couple of years. And his coaching and teaching Paul also strove to build a character and pride with those he was working with. I don’t think I could find a person in the whole world that didn’t love Paul Dabbs. I actually always got excited when I seen him so I could visit with him a moment. He was a fine fine man and I will miss him.

“ I remember the smiles that Mr. Dabbs shared as I saw him standing by his classroom door at McAdory and later in the hallways at Oak Grove. He had a kind spirit and showed much concern and compassion for the students. It was a pleasure knowing him. Praying for the family during this time of loss. Dian Vining
