

PAULETTE GWIN HARDY

July 1, 2022

Paulette earned her wings, on Friday morning, July 1, 2022, in Crestview, FL. She was born in Fairfield, AL on February 18, 1944, to Forrest Paul and Florence Gwin. She was a 1962 graduate of Hueytown High School and married her high school sweetheart, John Hardy, on January 3, 1963. Paulette followed John to Long Beach, CA and Seattle, WA, as he served in the US Navy. When John had to go overseas, Paulette lived with her parents in Titusville, FL. In late December 1964, John and Paulette moved to Tarpon Springs, FL, and then to Fort Walton Beach, FL in 1966. In 1972, they decided to move to Crestview and make it their hometown to raise a family.

Paulette worked various jobs, but the most important job she put her whole heart into was being a wife and mother. In her free time, she enjoyed crocheting, putting together puzzles, working on crossword puzzles, sitting outside listening to her wind chimes, watching for hummingbirds and butterflies, and spending time with her family and friends. Paulette never met a stranger and has many people who consider her as their second mom. She is also Mommalette to those who consider her a grandmother, especially to her Emma Boo. She is described as a sweet, special, kind-hearted woman with a one-of-a-kind personality.

Paulette is preceded in death by her parents, Forrest Paul and Florence Gwin; her sister, Charlotte Slocum; her brothers-in-law, Ronald Annis, Marcus Hasty,
