

PEGGY FAY NASH

October 2, 2020

Peggy Fay Nash, age 83, passed away on October 2, 2020. Born in Elora, TN, in 1937, she and her family made Concord, AL, their home for 52 years. Peggy worked for the Jefferson County School System and retired with 20 years of service and also served many years as the Chief Polling Inspector for the Concord Voting District.

Peggy was preceded in death by her husband of 43 years, Louie B. Nash Jr.; parents William Forrest Mason, Rosa Lee Powell, and John E. Powell; and granddaughter, Laura Carnes Alford.

Peggy is survived by her son Bryan Nash (Cindy), daughters, Lynn Carnes (Larry), and Nancy Cogswell (David). She is also survived by her 11 grandchildren: Cory Nash (Makaley), Sara Nash (Michael), Joy Wright (Jake), Julie Blodgett, Starling Hardwick (Hether), Jennifer Morning (Eddie), Jacob Carnes, Mason Carnes, Shawn Edmonson (Amberly), Brandon Edmonson (Carmen), Jessica Pepper (Tyson) and eighteen great-grandchildren; Sister, Marie Ray; Sister-In-Law, Gladys Moore; Brother-In-Law, Luther W. Nash, and numerous nieces and nephews.

Peoples Chapel Funeral Home will be presiding over the graveside service Monday, October 5, 2020, at 2:00 PM, at Highland Memorial Gardens, Bessemer, AL.

Tribute Wall

ML

“ I only met Peggy a couple of times, the last one at the home she was in. We had a fun time in the dining room as she ate her lunch!! Sassy and fun she was!!!

Mary Levesque - October 05, 2020 at 10:25 AM