“ Our deepest sympathy to all of you. We were so sad to hear of your loss. I believe that the moment Phil closed his eyes to his precious family here, he opened his eyes to the face of Jesus welcoming him home.

“ We are fortunate to have made a lot of great memories together the last several years. The best memories include all of those Saturday nights at the river playing games, laughing until we cried. We thank God He sent us friends like you. Love you all!

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your loved one, Phillip. May you find comfort in the love and memories shared together. May you also find comfort in knowing that God is near and ready to help you through this sad and difficult time, for Psalm 34:18 tells us God is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. May this scripture give you peace.

“ Offering sincere condolences to the family. I am so very sorry for your loss. Death was never part of our Heavenly Father's original purpose for mankind. In fact, in His word the Bible He calls it an enemy (1Cor. 15:26) which He promises in the very near future to do away with (Rev. 21:4,5) At that time tragedies and accidents will be a thing of the past, no one will ever get sick (Isaiah 33:24) and there will be a reuniting, a bringing back to life instead of losing (John 5:28,29) Please allow these words to be of comfort to you and give you hope. (2Cor. 1:3,4)
