“ When Phillip and I were growing up , we were best friends. I would talk to him about the boys I liked and he would talk to me about the girls he like .

I remember he had a lot of friends because he really was a very kind person . He always thought of others , he was a very unselfish person. If any of our family was in the hospital he would be the first one there to see about us and always ask if there was anything we needed , if there was he made sure we got it .

He and I would talk to each other on the phone occasionally, but we were both busy with our families and didn't talk as much as I would have liked .I was proud to call him my brother .

He was crazy in love with Deborah . We met one day for lunch and he told me then that he knew God meant for her to be his wife because she was always there for him and he loved her til the day he left to go be with Jesus and all our loved ones who went on before us .

I believe Phillip was a good husband and a good dad to Ryan, Rachael and Britany . I know they all miss him very much .

I miss you Phillip, but I know you are having the best time of your life .

I will miss you Porky .

Signed your sister Linda
