“ I remember when we were out riding motorcycles. The chain broke on my bike and we borrowed a chain off a swing set to pull it around to your house. We were going the furthest way around town. Pulling Mo with a old chain swing with Diane driving and me riding backwards to watch to make sure she was okay. We went around a really sharp curve a little to fast, the chain broke, and it swung Mo into the brushes flying. She wasn't hurt but we laughed about it the rest of the day. Just one of the great memories we had.
