“ *A ordinary night at the Carter's home on 13th way:
Mr. Carter coming home greeting everyone and ready to relax and watch the news, before dinner. Mom and Grandma in the kitchen, and everyone else pitching in to get supper on the table. Plenty of humorous conversations between Father and family. If that kitchen table could talk, what awesome stories it would tell.
I spent many of my teenage weekends with my best friend Susan over on 13th way. Her Mom and Dad always made me feel welcome, My second parents.
It has been my honor to have known
Mr Carter these past 40 plus years. I will miss him dearly.*

“ I have known Mr. Carter since I was young and remember so many moments. He used to crack me up saying something to scare the heck out of you only to wink to let you know he was playing. Words can't describe how I feel about Mr. Carter. My heart and prayers goes out to his entire family. Much Love to you all. He will be missed.

“ This man had the best sense of humor. He loved life and he loved sharing it with his family. I was fortunate enough to be included in the family by marrying his daughter. Dad, I'll miss your stories but I know I'll hear them all over again in just a season.

“ Remember visiting almost every year as a child when they lived in Palmdale CA. Especially remember the time when he took our family for a tour at Lock heed. Always had interesting stories of his life that he shared.
