“ The sadness I feel just won't let up. I loved Joe with all my heart. We were together over 10 years and my life gets harder to live every day without him. Joe and I did everything together. Joe was the most fun I'd ever had, the most joy I'd ever shared, and now, the most tears I've ever shed. We loved each other. I miss him dreadfully. My love goes out to his daughter, Lynnsey & family. I love you Joe, Marla

“ I still can't believe that you are gone. I know you are in Heaven with Daddy, Mother & so many more of our family & friends. I know that We will see you again some day. Until then, We can only pray for strength to accept & peace in our hearts that some good will come of our loss. You were a good man & brother. We love you , Joe.

“ Joe, we hardly knew ye! We had only just started to get to know Joe, but we loved his dry humor & right-on wit! I know he will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with Marla & the family.

“ It's so hard to find the words. I really can't believe it. I first met Joe when I started working at BellSouth in 2000. He's a great guy. He will be missed.
