Robbie grew up in Steele, AL. He enlisted in the Army in 1981 after a brief service in the Navy where he served until 1984. After the service he traveled some before returning to Alabama in 1996. He joined his Dad driving charter buses for Alabama Limousine, now Cline Tours, where he found his joy. He traveled the US, met people from all over the world and made lifelong friends during his time as a driver. He maintained friendships with people from Belgium, the UK and the University of Montevallo baseball team with whom he shared his homemade pepper jelly and salsa. As his health declined to where he was no longer able to work he spent his time with family.

There will be a service honoring Robbie at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo on Tuesday, December 10 at 12:30pm. If attending you need to be at the cemetery No later than 12:15 PM.
