“ I met Mark when he was living in a trailer park in Carthage, MO back in 2019. I did not get to know him much but, he was kind and reserved. He was working in testing/fixing of medical equipment. I felt that he was searching some peace in his life. Soon after, I lost contact with him. I later learned through Facebook that he returned back to home in Alabama. It was sad that I did not get a chance to get to know him more, but I feel he is in a better place now. May peace be with you, my friend.

“ I met Mark when he moved back home to be with his family. He helped Todd and a bunch of us friends and family of Todd's to build Todd's new home next to his Mother and Mark. You could tell how much he loved his family. He spent a lot of his time helping us All with the new home. I pray that his family will be comforted by God in this sad time. I feel sure Mark is in heaven now reunited with his Dad and no longer feeling any pain. God Bless You All.
