“ I had to work today and could not attend. Otherwise I would have been there. My sister Kay and I loved to be around Robin. We always had fun with her. She was so sweet and never said anything bad about others. I did get her to meet me for lunch a few years ago. Could not get her to go again. We had fun but I guess her health was worse than she would tell me. So sorry for all of you, her family going thru this.
