“ I first met Rose at Blue Cross and we became instant friends and enjoyed many years of having lunch together and car pooled. On the day she drove it started snowing and we had to take the back way home and we made it. Rose became friends with my mom and it meant so much to her when Rose came to my parents anniversary party. Through the years mom and i would run into her at stores or at her yard sales. A few years ago mom and I stopped by to visit Rose and she was beaming talking about Australia and showing us pictures. We really enjoyed our visit. Not too long ago was the last time I saw her when Ray spotted me at Habaneros in Hueytown and told me she was there and I went and talked to her Rose was such a sweet and loving person and I feel blessed to have known her for almost THIRTY years she was in her early 50s when I met her.
