Sandra Franklin Bracknell, age 77, passed away on March 22, 2021. She was a loving wife, devoted mother and grandmother. She was born August 21, 1943 in Northport, AL to Alton and Flossie Walker Franklin. She grew up in Northport, Brighton and Bessemer, AL. She graduated from Bessemer High School in 1961 and a graduate of Burroughs Business School in 1962. She retired from Stockham Valves and Fittings with 35 years of service and then worked at Citation Southern Ductile Casting Company for many years.

She was an avid gardener and had a green thumb with flowers and plants, as did her mother before her. Sandra was a member of the Allemande Square

Dancing Club and enjoyed square dancing and clogging.
